

Photo Booths vs. Live Photo Magnets

What actually keeps your event memorable — and keeps guests talking about it.

Head-to-Head Comparison

Feature	Traditional Photo Booth	Live Photo Magnets
The Takeaway	Paper strip or digital file — often lost or deleted	✓ A custom magnet guests keep and see every day
Guest Experience	Wait in line, step into a booth, staged poses	✓ Candid, roaming photography — no line, no waiting
Footprint	Bulky booth or enclosure, needs dedicated space	✓ Sleek printing station that blends into your event
Customization	Basic props, fixed backdrop templates	✓ Fully custom design — colors, logo, names, date
Print Limits	Often capped strips per guest or per session	✓ Unlimited magnets — every shot gets printed
Setup Time	1–2 hours, dedicated technician on-site	✓ 30–45 minutes, seamlessly staffed
Lasting Impact	Ends up in a drawer or the recycling bin	✓ Lives on the fridge — seen for years, not days
Best Suited For	Casual parties, quick novelty entertainment	✓ Weddings, Bar/Bat Mitzvahs, galas — events that want a premium, lasting keepsake

■ THE QUICK TAKEAWAY

A photo booth print lasts until the ride home. A photo magnet lasts on the fridge for years — turning every guest's kitchen into a small reminder of your event, long after the party ends.
